DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Morsk (2,987,363), which shows all of the claimed limitations. For example,

An oven 10 with a shelf arrangement the type oven comprising a cabinet (see at least fig. 1) provided with lateral walls parallel to each other (see at least fig. 1) and which define a front opening 13 closed by a lower door 11 which is horizontally tiltable between a closed position (see at least fig. 4), seated against the front opening, and an open position (see at least fig. 3), forwardly projected from the oven, and at least one shelf 20,21 detachably coupled (see at least col. 2, lines 47-50), rollers 32,33, driving rods 50 detachable via 31,51, comprising a pair of rails 41 being provided on each of the lateral walls 17 of the oven and on which respective mutually spaced portions of the each corresponding side of the at least one shelf are slidingly seated in order to be manually displaceable between an operative position, in which the at least one shelf is retracted in an interior of the oven (see at least fig. 1), and a parallel loading position, in which the at least one shelf is elevated and outwardly displaced in relation to the operative position (see at least figs. 3,7), each rail comprising a horizontal first extension, on which the at least one shelf seats in its the at least one shelf's operative position (see at least fig. 4), and a second extension, connected to the horizontal first one extension and upwardly inclined path (note shape of slot 42 towards the front opening and along which the at least one shelf is displaced between its the at least one shelf's operative and parallel loading positions (see at least fig. 3).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claim have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not
